

News from Over the State

Pension Fund Apportioned.

The State of Mississippi will pay her indigent soldiers and sailors $37.55 a year in future, instead of $41.05 last year, while the other classes will receive the same pay as heretofore.

A soldier or sailor who has lost both legs or both arms or one arm and one leg will receive $125.00 a year, payable quarterly. A soldier or sailor, who was married after 1885, will receive $75.00 a year, while the remainder come under what is known as the "pro rate" class. Servants of soldiers or sailors who were wounded or are indigent will receive the same as the "pro rate" class—$37.55 a year.

The last legislature increased the appropriation for pensions $100,000, making it $400,000, for the two years, 1910 and 1911, which gives the lowest class of pensioners an increase of $5.50 a year. The funds will be sent out to each county and paid out by the chancery clerks who will certify to the State auditor that the funds have been properly expended.

Scott the President.

At the Cotton State League gathering in Jackson Saturday F. A. Scott, was chosen president and he will pilot the affairs of the "tight little league" during the coming season. "No better selection could be made than that of Mr. Scott. He has the executive ability, tact, firmness and knowledge of the game, and all of these are needed by one to whose lot falls the heavy responsibility and sometimes thankless task of superintending the affairs of baseball in this or any other circuit. The confidence displayed in his ability will be more than justified and we predict for the league next year a most successful season.

All of Mississippi has been represented among the 22,000 visitors counted at the door of the old State capitol since the opening of the State fair. Of this number 9,042 entered Tuesday. This made the biggest attendance in one day for this traveling exhibit in any part of the country. The preceding record was 7,000 for a single day, at Providence, R. I. Of these thousands who entered the old capitol during Tuesday a considerable number of them went into the audience room many listened to a talk and saw some pictures in addition to the exhibits from this and other countries, showing how consumption ought to be wiped out in Mississippi.

Mr. W. G. Hatchett, one of our enterprising cotton buyers, concluded to pass his vacation this season in planting on the Lake place, and has made a fine crop of staple cotton. The character of his harvest may be judged from the fact that he sold one bale at Greenville for 27 1-2c a pound and another at Greenwood at 27 cents. It classed middling staple 1 3-8 to 1 7-16 inches.—Aberdeen Examiner.

Wreck at Kilmichael.

The "double-header" manifest on the Southern railway, which is a thru train from Greenville to Columbus, was wrecked Friday one mile west of Kilmichael. The track was completely torn away for more than two hundred yards and the roadbed in some places was plowed away by wrecked cars. Twelve cars were ditched in the wreck and about three of these completely demolished. Every wrecked car was loaded with merchandise and the contents of some of them were strewn all along the track.

Sold Pecan Crop for Handsome Figure

Irving P. Delmas, chancery clerk at Pascagoula, Miss., has closed a deal with F. Lewis for his Pecan crop for a consideration of $1200. This is the largest single pecan sale ever made on the gulf coast. Mr. Delmas' grove is only nine years old.

More attention will be devoted to growing wheat than before during the coming year. J. P. Hayes of Enterprise, sowed five acres of wheat last year and the official yield reported was 35 bushels to the acre. The wheat is of good quality and sold for .2 per bushel.

The oil department, an immense structure of the Meridian fertilizer factory was destroyed by fire Sunday afternoon. Thirty thousand gallons of oil were burned, besides a quantity of seed and hulls. Loss estimated at $75,000.

The Barnum & Bailey circus will hold forth at Clarksdale Saturday. From their they will go into winter quarters, finishing a most successful season.

Sniff Pitts, a prosperous farmer, living near Pontotoc, was shot and probably mortally wounded Tuesday by Ben Mann, 18 years old.

The Mississippi State Baptist Convention is in session this week at Greenwood. About 1,000 delegates are present.

The State Fair at Jackson closed Wednesday and was pronounced the best in the history of the fair association.

The Meridian Post reports the death of W. J. Wilson, the oldest resident of that city, at the age of 102.

Gov. Noel attended the State Baptist convention at Greenwood this week.

Jesse Scott was hanged at Indianola Wednesday at 12:14 by Sheriff R. L. Weissinger, of Sunflower county, and expired 12 minutes after the drop of the trap. Scott addressed the crowd, who had gathered to see him hung, for twenty minutes, but never mentioned anything about the crime for which he was to pay with his life. His body was sent to Jones Bayou by an uncle to be buried beside his mother.
